- It is the travelers' responsibility to ensure that they are eligible to obtain a passport and that they can provide a copy of the document by or before final payment for this trip.
- Those with an existing passport must ensure that has at least 6 months of validity from the date of the trip to the date of expiration.
- Passport cards are not acceptable for this trip.
- Currently, US Passport holders will receive VISA upon entry into Dubai. No fee is required at this time. If changes happen, we will alert you via email.

BILLING & PAYMENT OPTIONS:

- You can make payments on your own, just make sure to meet the trip payment benchmarks to avoid fees or cancellation.
- All prices are based on the rates of exchange in effect at the time we provided this quote. In the event that the US dollar devalues, Girl Let's Go, LLC reserve the right to increase prices accordingly. Your final invoice will reflect increases resulting from currency devaluation.

TRAVEL INSURANCE:

Not being able to go on your vacation; for any reason SUCKS, but losing the money you paid for that trip is SUCKIER! Travel Insurance companies are in the business of providing travelers with coverage for almost every reason under the sun, and this can come in the form of cash refunds, future credits, or even assistance in the event of bad things happening while traveling. Girl Let's Go is NOT an insurance company. Therefore, all payments made are non-refundable and cannot be transferred to another person or booking. For that reason we highly recommend you purchase travel insurance IMMEDIATELY upon registering for the trip to ensure you have the widest range of coverage offered to you. You may purchase on your own or through our affiliated partners at www.GirlLetsGo.com/travelprotection.

Need A Room Mate? No Problem.

Since prices are based on double occupancy (two people occupying one room) being a solo occupant means you pay more for your room than two people dividing the room cost in half. If you would like a room mate, you may list yourself in the trip classifieds once 50% of your invoice has been paid. This will allow you to see and contact others who are open to room sharing. This is a complimentary service, it does not guarantee we will find you a room mate.

Flights

You have the option to purchase this trip as land only, where you provide your own flight and airport transfers OR We can provide you with a quote and secure flight accommodations for you. Group Flight Options \(which include payment plans\) will not be available until Aug. 15, 2022 "if" we have enough travelers to provide this service.

- A full day-by-day itinerary will be provided 60 days before travel, if not earlier.
- A private Facebook group will be created about 30 days before event.

The Itinerary:

An anyone can book a trip, but for our event planners it's an "in constant communication, getting to know the desires of our group, and working hand-in-hand with destination hosts, partners and providers to create a truly unique experience for our Girl Let's Go travelers." Travel Protection & Refunds:

Girl Let's Go, LLC is a travel provider, NOT insurance company, therefore, payments made on trips are non-refundable and cannot be transferred to other reservations, those who wish to have this luxury should secure a travel protection policy. Please read the information below in its entirety:

Travel protection (Travel Insurance) is for the purpose of compensating you (the traveler) in the event that trip plans go awry. This can include, but is not limited to: unforeseen circumstances, missed flights, lost luggage, accommodations in the event of disaster etc. Compensation can include monetary refunds and vouchers depending on the coverage you choose. Travelers should purchase the policy that best fits their budget and desired level of coverage as we do not issue one-policy-fits-all options.

When requesting a quote, you will be asked to enter your personal information such as age, cost of trip, state of residency, pre-existing conditions and desired level of coverage as your quote will be based on those factors. Generally, the least expensive policies provide the least amount of coverage and reimbursement options. Top tier policies such as Cancel For Any Reason (CFAR) are generally most expensive because they provide the widest range of cancellable reasons and often offer monetary refunds rather than credits. CFAR policies are only available for purchase for a limited time from the date the traveler makes their deposit so keep this in mind and move expeditiously to acquire a policy.

Travelers are welcome to purchase travel protection from their own sources or use our providing partners found at www.GirlLetsGo.com/travelprotection. Prices are not elevated for using our partners but we do ask that travelers use our booking link or inform the associates when calling in that they are referred by Girl Let's Go, LLC, so that we receive credit for the policy. When you are ready to purchase your policy, please always start at www.GirlLetsGo.com/travelprotection then follow the links on the page to the insurance provider of your choice.

Getting Travel Insurance

- Go to: www.GirlLetsGo.com/travelprotection
- Enter your name, city, state and trip details

- Secure policy (with payment) once you've deposited your trip.

If you will be adding flights to your trip, you can update your policy to include your flights or new trip totals by contacting your insurance provider and updating them with your flight information and new trip balance. An additional fee may be assessed to your policy.

This includes but is not limited to your right to receive a refund, credit or compensation in such an event. For this reason, we highly recommend that travelers obtain travel protection/insurance to protect them in such event. The terms, conditions and level of coverage offered within the policy may dictate whether, and to what extent, coverage for any financial loss may exist under the circumstances. All guests will be required to sign an advisory statement to this effect holding Girl Let's Go, LLC harmless and release the agency from any and all liability for any damages, including but not limited to monetary losses, lost time, grievances, inconveniences or changes to the planned itinerary that may incur.
