CELEBRATING WITH OTHERS?

Tip 1: THIS IS YOUR MOMENT

When it comes to the planning, keep it about YOU and what you want because everyone with input or an opinion won't even make it to your trip so you should design an experience that you'll love with or without them. If you're planning on having a huge or intimate turnout, you should appoint a person or crew to help us creatively make this a memorable experience for you! Here's what we'll ask you. Please have their contact information ready.

Tip 2. PLAN EARLY

If you think your friends and family might appreciate time to make low-affordable monthly payments, plan early. Remember that most final payments are due 90 days prior to payment so deduct 3 months from the trip date and you can expect your final payment to be due somewhere around that time.

9 Months out

You and your guests have 6 months to make payments

12 Months out

You and your guests have 9 months to make payments

18 Months Out

You and your guests have 15 months to make payments
